

50 French diecast manufacturers

Posted by Joschik - 12 Feb 2010 07:49

Baskingshark and I have a bet and I need your help to win it!Â I said that there are or have been 50 French diecast companies and he disputes it.Â Let's prove him wrong.Â

Please post images of example of different French diecasts here.

Here a Quiralu to start

I had to do quite a lot of research.

I think that there is a book by Edward Force, maybe he has some more obscure names.

Yes, this bet is lost on technical grounds - still convinced we will get to 50
