Nice score. Are they just boxes or are there toys inside. If so would love to see them.

Ah Jay, you're missing the fun of collecting boxes, especially from Majorette.

The cars would stay long in production and be sold many times over. I've collected most of those without boxes, but vaguely remember having them when I was younger.

So its very nice to see other brands besides Matchbox/Lesney, Corgi, or Dinky that also had picture boxes.

I too would like to see some of the cars that came in those boxes. Only Majorettes I see are new plastic stuff. That is what I remember about them when I was younger and raising my kids, cheap plastic toys.

Let's see if I can scare some up.

#204, 209, 225 were the most common.

The #248 Buggy. This one stayed in production for a very long time.

Your Dodge 204 seems to have a GlobeToys ladder. Maybe it is a GlobeToys?

The buggy I had in stock just one year ago!

Holy smoke, this is the first time since 1975 that I have seen any of these boxes aside from the pair I own - these surely dont grow on trees!
