Love those twinpacks. There is a loose metallic maroon/pink UNCLE car on eBay at the moment. It's missing one spotlight and uncarded but is up to $50 already.

Playarts with hubcaps are a part of my childhood that is at forefront of my collecting desire. I wish I had bought more at the time but the ease with which the paint flaked off discouraged me when a Matchbox or corgi Junior could be had for the same money - I only bought 5 Playarts new 1973-75 and never found a Fiat Dino when i had the money to buy back then.....
