

Any of those Vari-Vue rings found their way to Europe?

Hello,

just recently recognized that similar to the UNCLE ring, several similar rings, corresponding to Corgi Toys models do exist:

The Monkees, Batman, Green Hornet, Mr.Softee, James Bond and?...

Does someone own any of these - would be ideal for a code 3 display - what do you think?

Were these rings popular in the UK - cannot remember to have seen one of these except the UNCLE in my childhood...

Best regards

Wolfgang

from what I remember... my sister usually took the rings and i got to play with the cars.

if only we valued these things when we were young
