

Who knows these Spanish Cars

The maker is Juguetos Coche $R Icoleccionalos (or so says the packaging), are they just fantasy cars?

They have a Hongwell looking H under them (and the words C.C. Render for the blue one and C.C. Inferno for the red one).

Really need to see the front grilles in a standard 3/4 view. But from what I do see, they definirely appear to be generic in design! Another toy company saving money on licensing, no doubt!

The blue one has a certain Aston Martin appearance to it, but I'd say they are both generic castings.

They're generic models made in China, if I remember well
