

Little "Red" men

Posted by dearlea - 30 May 2011 21:26

OK I have googled and googled these toys, but cant figure them out. Instead of little green army men, they are little red men with ties on and the ties seem to be either blowing to the side of tucked in their shirt pocket or something. I know they are from the 60's and most likely Marx, but I cant find them in any playset. They are on square bases. I will try and take a picture and upload it if no one has any idea. Thanks alot!!!
