

Dream RV

Posted by RVREVO - 13 Oct 2017 01:19

Not much of a Hot Wheels collector, but occasionally they do have some wicked models.

VW bulli conversion into a mid engined truck whilst the rest is a trailer camper unit caravan.

Makes one wonder why we never did this before...

Oh wait... somebody did 😊

Kind Regards

Seen a few of these conversions and not just in VW garb. They looks great when matched up in paint scheme. I have seen quite a few at car shows and they range from VW's to Fords to Chevy's and I have even seen some with COE cabs and conventional cabs in a semi style make up . Heavy Haulers.

You should put this in the Caravan and Camper thread

Will do.

Gives me an idea for mykitset RV conversion.

I think I was over thinking it without a plan.

Got some ideas now.
