

Today at the NAMAC fair

Posted by RoutemasterNL - 06 Apr 2019 13:53

And today at a very busy NAMAC fair, I met Jan Werner and his nephew who had a stall there. Together with Gerrit, who I picked up in Amsterdam and we drove together to the fair. I did buy a few models myself, not for my own collection, but for resale.

Hi Gerrit, we missed each other no doubt due to the crowded Houten venue. It was very busy and the sales were good. Some of the items I sold below. And far below a wonderful Traction Avant which was delivered two days before Houten. I hope uploading these picture will be successful.

SOLD:

DELIVERED: the newly added Dinky Toys 24N Traction Avant.

Kind regards, Jan

Immaculate condition toys. I am sure you got good prices.

Your new addition looks just as nice. Thanks for showing.
