Very nice Hot Rods you have there. I really like that gasser willies. At 1:32 scale though I don't have the room, yet, to display that size cars. I am working on it though.

Good to see a couple in very good condition as the two I have the 1942 Willys and the Ford three window couple has the bumpers and a headlight missing. Looks as if they have been used for stockcar smash up derbies.

Kids will do that to toys and who know where they were before you got them. Or did this happen since you bought them?

In your place, not hard to do. You need clear bins to store in and label them. ☺

I have the bottom three of these,had them for years. I still have the bonnets and boxes. (not sure where the boxes/packaging is though) Bonnets are not a great fit to be honest at least on the red 32 Ford?

Cheers,Frame.
