

Efsi Land Rover Sets

Posted by Baskingshark - 14 Jun 2009 19:27

In the same lot that my new Playart Rovers came in, I got these cool Efsi Land Rovers:

Dutch Red Cross Ambulance

Standard version with WWF Panda on the doors

Police Twinpack with boat on trailer

And my favourite:

Tow Truck with Citroen Dyane on trailer.

Here's a close-up of this one:

Looks like EFSI changed their name to OTO.

The wheels are different to my current Landy's

That's a pretty decent haul you scored. I may have to start looking on the UK auctions, you're getting some great stuff for next to nothing!

Thanks! This lot was actually from France. Best of all, there were two each of a couple of them!

Nice to see what the blisters look like! I have a Dyanne on the trailer but there was no EFSI/Best Box towcar in the 400 car collection that I had first pick of, although I suspect that as this trailer looks identical to the Majorette car trailer I may in fact have a loose Dyanne and a trailer belonging behind a Fiat 127

It's possible - the trailer is also not cast as a car-carrying trailer - it's just the same trailer they have in the boat pack as far as I can see, so the Dyane doesn't fit on it very well!
