Latest acquisition for the air craft collection, Dinky #721 Junkers JU 67B. I am going to replace the missing Propeller and the Bomb it carries. It is in very good condition and I only paid $12.26 US funds shipped to my door, about Â£7.40. Good deal in my books. Lets see if the pictures off eBay will load here. I have not received the model yet but expect to next week and will put up better pictures of it after it arrives and I clean it up some.

Enjoy, Jim

Do you have a propellor? I think I may have a spare one.

No I don't have one yet but will probably be ordering some for the store. I also want the bomb for the plane and can get that too.
