An update from Jim Gallegos about next year's Gathering!

Save the date, It's official! The 11th Annual Matchbox Collectors (MC) International Gathering of Friends Convention is set. It will be 19-21 July 2013 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

I am building an email list and will contact you when registration starts. Registration will begin later this year or very early 2013. This convention has sold out every year and we are expanding for 2013 to accommodate those who missed out before. Still Dinner and Dealer spaces are limited. Email me at [matchb0x1\[at\]aol.com](mailto:matchb0x1[at]aol.com).
