found this on ebay last week, dont seem to find trophy models very often. Im sure some of you out there know these were actually corgi toys under license and sold only through marks and spencer shops although i always thought it was woolworths.Â other pics are in my gallery. A total of 5 models produced 1- vanwall, 2 - brm, 3 -austin healy, 4 -triumph tr2, 5 -mga

Hey, thanks for that Tom, I did not know that it was a store promo model. I did figure is was a Corgi Casting but did not know it was under license to Trophy. I have one and now know what goes on it for wheels. I only have a body but it is in good condition and I want to restore it for my collection. Same with the Green Corgi Model. GaveÂ you a Karma rating for that too. Thanks again.

Congratulations. This is so rare that when we put up the ToyPedia section for Trophy Models , we couldn't find a file photo of ANY of the models to use!!!

It's an amazing find in amazing condition!
